

As most Americans have not even heard that the FCC is rewriting the corporate ownership rules, I ask you to postpone your vote on docket 02-277 and help inform people about this crucial decision. It is so crucial for our democracy to retain its free press withpout which we are in serious trouble. This is not just a business matter, it is also a matter of our ability to see a diverse array of news sources and information.